

Bible and Me

Draw lines from the Samaritan to the excuses he could have made for not helping. Draw lines from the child to the excuses he (and all of us) could make for not helping others.

He wouldn't help me!

I would have to walk to the inn.

His friends hate me.

He didn't help me last week.

It would cost me money.

My friends would laugh at me.

I'm busy playing now.

It might take too long.

Will you follow Jesus by helping?